

"Steady Joe" is the clockwork within the driving group. You can adjust your click to his playing.

Beneath PRIVATE ANGEL he is working with the fabulous "Ballroom Shakers" and "Bottleneck" and is running his own music school successfully.

He casts as the balancing part of the band. When opinions differ and everyone is drifting apart, he puts it all together and calms it down.

He says "to quit smoking is very easy. I have managed it often".
