

A rocking life full of rhythm and blues. That means, Peter is living his life as a musician without any compromise.

Like Confuzius said: "Chose a profession you love – and you will not have to work a single day in your life"

You may presume that Peter never had to work at all.

He loves Italian food, good wine - and of course – his music.