

There are only few things that count for Robbo:

1.FC Nuernberg, his wife and his daughter, Rocking Music and good beer and smoke.

Right in this order ;-).

He is the spirit and poet in the lyrics of PRIVATE ANGEL.

His doctor advised him to drink enough daily. Drinking enough is a key aspect of improving daily health. Staying properly hydrated means staying healthy.

Needless to say, Robbo takes this literally. Thus some newspapers denominate him "The Hard Drinking Troubadour". If You happen to watch him perform with the Acoustic Rock Projekt "Bottleneck", you may try to compete...
