

After George had quit last year to take care of his music-school exclusively, Dieter left PRIVATE ANGEL some weeks ago. He is running a company since about ten years where he is producing fly-screens. Big success means a lot of work. Therefore he decided to concentrate on his business – in favour of his employees and his family.

Thank You – Dieter for all the good times and all the good tunes.